1. The Headquarters Staff of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) Hanoi Front is commanded by Van Tien Dung, former Political Commissar for the 320 Division. This staff is directly subordinate to the DRV Army General Staff; it is only responsible to Staff of Intersector III in matters of supply and armaments.
2. The Hanoi Front Headquarters Staff is divided into three bureaus as follows:
 - a. Military Bureau. This bureau, commanded by Phung The Tai, directs the guerrillas and the military intelligence services (Quan Bao). These services are further divided into independent units referred to as battalions. Three units have been formed: the 401 Battalion, the 3 Battalion, and a third unnamed battalion.
 - b. Administrative Bureau. Commanded by Khat Day Tien, this bureau conducts investigations in the five zones into which the administration area has been divided. Investigations are concerned with: population, living conditions, means of livelihood, political tendencies and identification of potential traitors.
 - c. Cong An Bureau. Commanded by Le Thu Quat, the Cong An is divided into four sections: Maintenance of Order, Judiciary, Economic, and Political. The Political section is further divided into espionage, counter-espionage, assault and investigation sub-sections.
